Transaction Support Lawyers (m/f/x)

Pioneers, creative minds and decision-makers welcome! For our state-of-the-art Legal Solutions Hub in Berlin, we are recruiting Transaction Support Lawyers (m/f/x) to join our growing team.

Take the opportunity to be part of our Berlin team and work on top global mandates in a dynamic, international and tech-savvy environment that encourages digital innovation.

Working at Freshfields carries a few promises

You will not be bored. You will face problems you haven't seen before. You will meet interesting and friendly people. And you will always work in teams. This calls for a genuine interest in other people and the acceptance of differences. It also means an exceptional willingness to pitch in to get the job done.

As part of our deal teams, you will work on mandates across all of the firm's practice groups, for example on corporate transactions (M&A), finance deals, real estate transactions, (antitrust) investigations and dispute resolution. Your role will make a significant contribution to our firm's success and include:

- providing support in legal due diligence and in the organisation and coordination of transaction processes;
- organising and supporting internal investigations, eg in connection with (antitrust) investigations or internal fact-finding;
- preparing, processing and drafting transaction documents (such as confidentiality agreements and powers of attorney);
- compiling and managing annexes to agreements; and
- co-operation with our legal tech/innovation team.

The position will initially have a fixed term of 12 months and is scheduled to be extended.

Your qualifications

You have a law degree (LL.B, LL.M, foreign qualified lawyer etc.), where you have demonstrated your outstanding abilities. Additionally, you are fluent in English (spoken and written) and at least one other European language (French, Italian, Spanish or Dutch). Knowledge of German is desirable but not essential. You are also familiar with common MS Office applications. Beyond that, you manage your stakeholders proactively and you know how to use your organisational talent as well as your interpersonal skills to work well in an interdisciplinary and international team.
